

I Can Face Deception

“I Can Do All Things Through Christ Who Strengthens Me!”

Definitions

Deception:

The action of deceiving someone.

Deception harbors:

insecurity, shame, guilt, facades, destructive behaviors, excuses, blame, malice, strife, sickness and diseases.

Truth:the quality or state of being true

Truth harbors:

Security, confidence, freedom, vulnerability, humility, constructive behaviors, accountability, responsibility, forgiveness, collaboration, healing and deliverance.

Exodus 18:21

“²¹ Furthermore, you shall select out of all the people able men who fear God, men of truth, those who hate dishonest gain; and you shall place these over them as leaders of thousands, of hundreds, of fifties and of tens.”

I Can Face Deception

“I Can Do All Things Through Christ Who Strengthens Me!”

AREAS OF DECEPTION

1. We Face Deception Within Ourselves.

1 John 4:20

If a man say, I love God, and hateth his brother, he is a liar: for he that loveth not his brother whom he hath seen, how can he love God whom he hath not seen?

In Context | Full

2. We Face Deception From Others.

Psalms 55:12-14

12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me; then I could have borne it: neither was it he that hated me that did magnify himself against me; then I would have hid myself from him:

13 But it was thou, a man mine equal, my guide, and mine acquaintance.

14 We took sweet counsel together, and walked unto the house of God in company.

3. We Face Deception From The Father of Lies.

John 8:44

Ye are of your father the devil, and the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him. When he speaketh a lie, he speaketh of his own: for he is a liar, and the father of it.

In Context | Full Chapter | Other Translations

Revelation 21:8

But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.

In Context | Full Chapter | Other Translations

I Can Face Deception

“I Can Do All Things Through Christ Who Strengthens Me!”

Personal Reflection

Biblical References to Deception

The Bible provides numerous references to deception, illustrating its consequences and the importance of living in truth. Proverbs 12:22 states, “The Lord detests lying lips, but he delights in people who are trustworthy.” This verse underscores the value of honesty and integrity in the eyes of God.

Another significant reference is found in John 8:44, where Jesus refers to the devil as “a liar and the father of lies.” This connection between deception and evil reinforces the idea that deception is not just a moral failing but a spiritual one that distances us from God’s truth and love.

Moreover, embracing honesty and transparency in our relationships fosters genuine community and accountability, essential aspects of Christian fellowship. As stated in 1 John 1:8-9, “If we claim to be without sin, we deceive ourselves and the truth is not in us. If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just and will forgive us our sins and purify us from all unrighteousness.” This passage highlights the importance of acknowledging our shortcomings and being truthful before God and others.

The biblical meaning of deception serves as a reminder of the significance of truth in our lives and our relationship with God. Through the stories and teachings found in Scripture, we learn that deception not only leads to personal and relational harm but also distances us from the divine truth that God offers.

By striving for honesty and integrity, we can cultivate a deeper understanding of our faith and live out the principles of love, trust, and authenticity that are central to the Christian life. As we navigate our spiritual journeys, let us remain vigilant against deception, embracing the truth that sets us free.

Excerpt from Bible Dictionary Today.com